

'What Did the Wesleys Ever Do for Us?'

The story of John Wesley; what his mother Susanna taught him; how he took all the credit; and how she got forgotten in all of it.

Join us for a celebration of the life of Susanna and John Wesley. See John's story illustrated, from his birth to his death; and how Susanna not only influenced every major event, but his theology and his thinking. She said it first!

Didn't get to the Susanna 350 'Bright Succession' conference celebrating the anniversary of her birth? Come and see the Conference posters, take part in an interactive display

Where: Trinity Methodist Church, Chapel Street, Woodhouse

When: Saturday 16 November, 10am-1pm, with coffee, soup and sarnies
