

Community Outreach Worker (part-time) at Stocksbridge Christian Centre

An opportunity has arisen for an enthusiastic and committed Christian to work with our small, friendly, forward thinking church to expand outreach in Stocksbridge and the surrounding area.

The post is part-time for 15 hours per week and is a fixed term for 12 months.

Purpose:

The employment of a part-time Community Outreach Worker for 15 hours per week for 12 months is a key part of plans to develop and continue a project called 'Sowing Seed on the Whitwell Estate', a concerted effort to reconnect the Stocksbridge Christian Centre with the younger families, children and youth who comprise the most significant portion of the population of the Whitwell Estate in Stocksbridge.

Main Responsibilities:

The broad remit of the Community Outreach Worker will be the following:

- to be the liaison between the church and the local community.
- to work creatively to make new disciples of Christ.
- to develop new forms of outreach to the local community including work with younger families, parents with pre-school children and middle-aged and older adults
- to work co-operatively with the minister, congregation and staff at the Stocksbridge Christian Centre.
